++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly dry but becoming largely cloudy today.

Today:
Frosty start for many areas, but also sunny, with any isolated fog patches gradually clearing. Through today most places will become cloudy, while staying dry, with limited sunny intervals. Any early isolated light coastal showers will die away. Maximum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Tonight:
Starting dry and mainly cloudy. Overnight clear spells will develop for some areas, allowing a slight frost to develop and perhaps some patchy fog, while cloud lingers for other areas. Minimum temperature -2 deg C (28 deg F).

Sunday:
Chilly start for many places, with frost and any fog clearing. Through the day there will be varying, often large amounts, of cloud but also some sunny spells. Light winds. Maximum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Milder Monday and Tuesday and mainly dry, with some bright or sunny spells and light winds. Wednesday mild, cloudy with spells of rain and very windy with coastal gales.
